but for some people with arthritis, it may be recommended to take as much as 800 to 1,000 milligrams four or three times a day, respectively.

opiates and opioids (man made versions of opiates) are known to bring about physical dependence within a few weeks of regular dosing